

PENNSYLVANIA'S CONSERVATION HERITAGE: TELLING THE STORY

Pennsylvania's Conservation Heritage: Telling the Story is a statewide initiative with the mission of documenting and interpreting the commonwealth's rich and diverse conservation and environmental history through oral interviews, a series of documentaries, public programs, and articles.

The conservation history of Pennsylvania tells a cyclical narrative of environmental degradation of our rich resources—and the more hopeful story of the far-reaching visions of conservation leaders such as Joseph T. Rothrock, Gifford Pinchot and Maurice K. Goddard and the passage of policies enacted to protect our resources. This is a story of citizens who overwhelmingly banded together—sportsmen, families and concerned communities—to protect our air, land and water, and to preserve our rich conservation legacy for future generations.

Pennsylvania's Conservation Heritage: Telling the Story is a partnership endeavor, guided by a committee of agencies, non-profits, individuals, and academia. To learn more about the partners and the program, visit paconservationheritage.org.

How do I get involved?

Telling the story of our conservation legacy involves a team of players across the state. As the Project develops resources, we are looking for partners to help educate the public about our conservation legacy. The project is also seeking venues to screen a series of soon-to-be-released short documentaries on some of the state's conservation leaders.

Listed below are a variety of ways to become involved. Complete this form—or go to our online form—and let us know how we might work together to reconnect Pennsylvanians to their conservation history.

_____ I am interested in “camera ready” articles on conservation leaders for my newsletter, social media, and website. (A collection of articles is already available on our website at paconservationheritage.org. We just ask that you credit the website as the source.)

_____ I have looked at the website, and recommend the following resources to be added to the resources page:

_____ I am willing to link to the Conservation Heritage website from my website.

_____ I am interested in hosting a showing of the documentary(ies) as they become available.

_____ I am interested in inviting a speaker to attend an event to talk about the project/lead a workshop/lead a discussion/show the documentaries.

_____ I would like to join a committee of the project. Please contact me so that I might learn more about the options available to me.

_____ I would be interested in attending a statewide conservation heritage meeting. If so, please list the time of year that works best for you: _____

_____ I am willing to run an article about the project in our newsletter.
